Cranfield is creating leaders in engineering, technology and management
Who we are

A specialist postgraduate university located at the heart of the UK, Cranfield’s world-class expertise, large-scale facilities and unrivalled industry partnerships are creating leaders in technology and management globally.

The research and consultancy we carry out for industry, government and business provides our students with a real-world learning environment, allowing them to develop as professionals and then transfer their knowledge to the global economy.
Strategically located in the UK

Cranfield University is located within the Oxford to Cambridge Arc (O2C), an initiative launched in 2003 to create an “arc” of innovation and entrepreneurial excellence.

It is also near to Silicone Fen, home to a large cluster of high-tech businesses focusing on software, electronics and biotechnology.

This makes Cranfield University well-located for study and research opportunities as well as future employment prospects.

At Cranfield you learn by doing

“Group projects are consultancy-style assignments sponsored by industry partners. They provide students with experience working on real problems for a real client, gaining essential technical and transferable skills, such as team working, managing resources and developing reporting and presentation skills.”
Global reach

We have unrivalled industry partnerships. 1,500 companies across the world choose to work with us. Below are just a few of the organisations we work with.
Our facilities

Cranfield has many world-class, large scale and national facilities that enhance the quality and value of our research and teaching. Learn more about them in the individual theme slides.
Campus life
Cranfield Students’ Association (CSA)

The CSA is run by a team of elected students and supported by a small team of staff, supporting and representing Cranfield University students, promoting student welfare and organising social, cultural and sporting activities.

Throughout the year, the CSA organises regular entertainment including freshers' and graduation events, live bands, discos and the President’s Ball. The CSA also organises trips to places of interest around the country, according to the demand from members.
