

GUIDELINES FOR A SUCCESSFUL THESIS

You've just enrolled in the last subject of your degree. Congratulations!

Remember:

- 1 It's a different kind of subject in which you'll carry out a single project and have to manage your time and resources independently.
  - 2 Your supervisor will provide you with support along the way and help ensure the quality of your thesis.
  - 3 It's important that you meet regularly with your supervisor over the semester so that they can guide you and monitor the work you're doing.
  - 4 On the final thesis website of the Terrassa School of Industrial, Aerospace and Audiovisual Engineering (ESEIAAT) you'll find all the information you need on the content and format of the files to be submitted.
  - 5 Your supervisor will be responsible for approving your thesis for submission. They must review your thesis before you formally deposit it in Atenea TFE.
- ↓ Once your thesis has been deposited and validated by your supervisor, the examination committee will assess the following points:

40%

Overall:

- coherence and clarity between objective and results
- use of critical thinking
- originality and innovation
- correlation between theory and practice

10%
